

Robert A. Huddleston

Experience

December, 2014 to Present

e-Hazard Electrical Safety Instructor

- Electrical Workplace Safety NFPA 70E – Low Voltage Qualified
- High Voltage Qualified based on OSHA 1910.269

BNSF Railway, Engineering Department, Burlington, Iowa

Retired from BNSF Railway after 43 years in the following positions:

- 1972-1977 Electrical Apprenticeship
- 1977-1989 Journeyman Electrician
- 1989-1993 Electrical Foreman
- 1993-1996 Electrical Supervisor
- 1996-2004 Electrical Foreman
- 2004-2015 Electrical Safety Facilitator
- Helped develop electrical safety and lockout/tagout programs
- Installed and maintained primary distribution systems up to 15kV, diesel fueling facilities, movable span bridges, waste water treatment plants, and locomotive repair facilities
- Provided training for the electrical group
- Provided support to the Telecom, Signal, and Operating Departments

Qualifications:

- Registered Master Electrician (Wisconsin)
- OSHA Construction Industry Outreach Trainer
- E-Hazard Train the Trainer LV/HV course, December 2014

Professional Affiliation:

- NFPA (National Fire Protection Association)
- ASSE (American Society of Safety Engineers)