

Chad Tennant

Electrical Safety Consultant

Chad Tennant has experience both in the field and in the classroom. His B.S. is in Biochemistry from BYU. He was a 1st and 2nd lieutenant in the US Army Engineer 101st Airborne Division, and then became a Captain and Instructor for the US Army Engineer Corp. Chad is also a US Army Ranger Veteran, as well as an Eagle Scout for the Boy Scouts of America.

Currently, Chad is the owner of My Deliverables Team, LLC, which provides clients with comprehensive financial services. He also instructs adult students at the Upper Valley Career Center in electrical safety.

Career Highlights

e-Hazard 2023- Present
Electrical Safety Consultant

Upper Valley Career Center 2020- Present
Adult Student Instructor

- Created required curriculum to teach adults in the commercial and industrial workplace theoretical, practical, and hands-on skills vital to electrical safety.
- Taught nearly 400 hours and over 200 students in classroom and onsite settings.

MY DELIVERABLES TEAM, LLC 2003-Present
Owner

- Provides clients with comprehensive financial services that develop short and long-term goals for annual personal and corporate growth.
- Created hundreds of easy-to-follow company processes, ensuring consistency and efficiency.

US Army Engineer Corp 2001-2003
Captain-Instructor

- Handpicked to be the lead instructor of four 17-week courses to mentor, teach, and inspire over 200 young lieutenants as they learned their responsibilities and duties as engineer officers.
- Classes instructed: Demolitions & Explosives, Residential & Commercial Construction, Vehicle & Equipment Maintenance, and Safety.

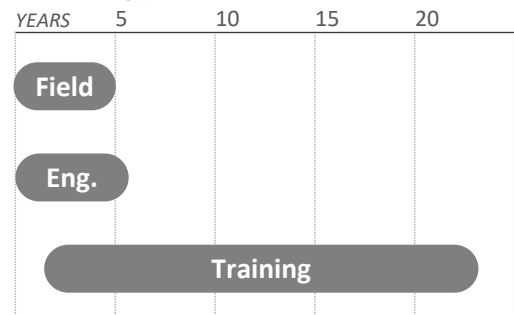

Snapshot

Focus

TRAINING

- Low Voltage
- High Voltage
- Electric Vehicle (EV)
- Customized

Career Experience Timeline

Education & Certifications

Brigham Young University, Provo, UT

B.S., Biochemistry

United States Army

Veteran

Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA)

Certified OSHA Instructor for 10/30 Hour Courses

National Center for Construction Education & Research (NCCER)

Certified Core, Electrical 1, and HVAC 1 Instructor